TOMASI MEADOW UPDATE

Underhill voters overwhelmingly approved the expenditure of $20,000 for the conservation purchase of the Tomasi Meadow at Town Meeting. This support was vital and is helping the Jericho Underhill Land Trust (JULT) and the Vermont Land Trust (VLT), reach our $231,000 objective. Within this $231,000 goal, $56,000 needs to be raised privately...and it is. By the time this spring newsletter reaches you, we expect total funding for the Tomasi Meadow to be achieved! The purchase and sale agreement has a closing date of August 30, 2020. The coming months will include the drafting of the conservation easement, title work, baseline documentation (which details the property as it exists now) and other activities.

The Tomasi Meadow offers many opportunities. Besides the iconic view to Casey's Hill, this land is also a productive hayfield. The Tomasi Meadow can also provide perimeter trails for year round recreation and an outdoor classroom for the Underhill Central School. Children sledding on Casey's Hill, often finish their fast rides on the Tomasi Meadow. This cherished property has garnered substantial financial support for its conservation. JULT wants to thank the community for your generous donations. We look forward to celebrating with the Tomasi family, the Vermont Land Trust, the Vermont Housing and Conservation Board and the community the permanent protection of the Tomasi Meadow later this summer.

A Conservation Reserve Fund for Jericho

Written by Sabina Ernst

At the 2020 Town Meeting, Jericho voters supported initiating a tax to create a Conservation Reserve Fund. Having dedicated and consistent funding year after year gives the town a means to support conservation projects and also gives us the opportunity to apply for outside funding sources, such as grants, to leverage our conservation dollars. The Fund is intended to help landowners establish easements, covenants, etc. In some cases, the Town may purchase an easement or right of way, for example, and compensate the landowner. The fund may also be used to purchase land but that's not its primary purpose.

The Conservation Fund re-establishes a way to compensate landowners, but with a more equitable structure than the defunct tax-stabilization plan which ended in 2015. The Conservation Fund will provide incentives to landowners who help the Town achieve Town goals, such as trail easements, open space and agricultural land preservation, and protecting parts of Jericho's history.

The criteria for conservation projects can be found at the Jericho Town Hall and on the Jericho Town Website (jerichovt.org).

THANK YOU!

We want to thank you for your ongoing membership and steadfast support of JULT. We would not be able to engage with interested landowners and carry out land conservation work without you. We are solely funded through our membership contributions. Besides actively working to promote and facilitate land conservation within our two towns, we also own and manage two large properties. Both the Wolfrun Natural Area and Kikas Valley Farm are enrolled in State Current Use and require updated management plans and stewardship. Your membership is vital and we thank you for it!

SAVE THE DATE!!

Mills Riverside Park will be celebrating its 20th Anniversary on August 8th, 2020! The Jericho Underhill Park District is planning a special community day dedicated to this exceptional park. Many remember the extraordinary effort that the Jericho Underhill Land Trust mounted in 1999 to save this land. Broad community financial support, along with the good wishes of the Mills Family, allowed Mills Riverside Park to happen. August 8th will include an exciting Lantern Parade made up of over 400 school children that will have created lanterns in celebration. This event is sponsored by the Jericho Underhill Park District and the Jericho Underhill Land Trust. Expect more details in the summer JULT newsletter, Facebook and Front Porch Forum.
